SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, all of them.

SENATOR NEWELL: ...theater or conventional weapons in the European theater or conventional weapons in the Asian theater and nuclear weapons also and just everything?

SENATOR DeCAMP: That's right, absolutely right.

SENATOR NEWELL: It is just a blanket, what is the purpose of this?

SENATOR DeCAMP: We are going to be tougher than them so we can "whup" them if they try to "whup" us.

SENATOR NEWELL: John...

SENATOR DeCAMP: No, I am serious.

SENATOR NEWELL: I know. I understand that and you are just a little flippant but...

SENATOR DeCAMP: Oh, I am not flippant at all.

SENATOR CLARK: We shouldn't have a dialogue (interruption).

SENATOR NEWELL: The purpose of this is to instruct our delegation to vote for what?

SENATOR DeCAMP: The concept of Peace Through Strength.

SENATOR NEWELL: Well, how does that concept translate? How does it transfer?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Aw! Davie, you can read the resolution and I am not going to sit here and get into a discussion of each theater potential war and everything else.

SENATOR NEWELL: Do you think this is the kind of thing the Nebraska Legislature has thought out and really means something to our Congressional delegation and really instructs them on any certain proposals before the Congress in terms of the Armed Services Committee and in terms of military appropriation? Does it do that?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes.

SENATOR NEWELL: It does do that. Well, what does it do? Does it say we ought to spend five percent more or twenty percent more or fifty percent more? What are we saying, John?
